DANGER NOT OVER,

But the President Continues to Rest Comfortably.

CLOSE FRIENDS SANGUINE,

Believing His Present Condition Aurgs a Favorable Outcome.

HOW THE NIGHT AND DAY PASSED.

Cabinet to Meet at Buffalo to Deliberate Public Affairs—Prayers at All Churches Sunday For the Wounded Chief Executive. Telegrams of Sympathy.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—Through the quiet, peaceful Sabbath, every word that came from the big vineclad house in Delaware avenue, in which the stricken chief magistrate of the nation lies battling for life, was reassuring, and the chances of his recovery are so greatly improved that all of those who have kept the patient vigil at his bedside feel strongly that his life will be spared. The developments of the day were dreaded, but hour after hour passed, and the distinguished patient, struggling there beneath the watchful eyes of physicians and trained nurses, showed not an unfavorable symptom. Five times during the day the eminent doctors and surgeons assembled for consultation, and each time the verdict was unanimous that what change had occurred was for the better. Not the slightest premonitory symptom of peritonitis appeared, and the fresh hope borne with the morning grew stronger and stronger as the day advanced, until toward evening the confidence expressed in the president's recovery seemed almost too sanguine.

Dr. Charles McBurney, the famous New York surgeon who had been summoned in consultation, declared that the president's condition was satisfactory to all the physicians present. It is not strange, therefore, that the vice president, the members of the cabinet and distinguished visitors who called came away with lighter hearts and buoyant tread and gave expression to the most optimistic sentiments. The encouraging news spread over the exposition city with great rapidity, and thousands rejoiced.

Not Out of Danger.

And yet, despite all this optimism, the president is by no means out of danger. Not one of his physicians, not one of his advisers who is admitted to the inner councils, has the temerity to go so far as to declare that he is. But if he continues to improve for one more day the danger of peritonitis, which is most dreaded, will have practically disappeared. One of the doctors thought 48 hours would be the limit of the danger from that source, but his more conservative colleagues believe at least 24 hours, possibly 36 from this time, must elapse before the possibility of peritonitis shall have vanished. That disposed of, still other complications may arise. Blood poisoning might set in or an abscess form where the bullet is imbedded in the muscles of the back.

Thus far the ball of the assassin, which is still in the body, gives the physicians no anxiety. But if the slightest inflammation appears in the region of the lead it will be immediately extracted. No difficulty is anticipated in this regard. One of Edison's best x-ray machines and his most skillful and trusted operator, Dr. H. A. Knoll, has arrived. With it the physicians say there is not the slightest doubt that the ball can be located perfectly for an operation. They do not deem it advisable to sap any of the president's strength at this time. All his reserve force is needed now to resist the danger of peritonitis and septic poisoning. Besides, if inflammation does not set in around the bullet it will soon become encysted. All the effects of the ether which was administered when the operation was performed, on the exposition grounds, had disappeared, and the president's mind was perfectly clear during the time he was awake.

Sunday for the first time he enjoyed natural sleep. Also for the first time nourishment was administered. It was in liquid form and was injected hypodermically to avoid the necessity of irritating the walls of the stomach. The exterior wound was dressed and is progressing satisfactorily.

Vice President Roosevelt, after going to church, hurried to the residence. There he was joined by Senator Hanna. They came away together and gave expression to the most confident and encouraging sentiments. The vice president not only shared the cheerful feeling, but was extremely optimistic.

Cabinet to Meet.

All the members of the cabinet are now here except Secretaries Hay and Long. The former telegraphed that he would start from Nowberry probably in time to be here Monday night. Secretary Long also telegraphed that he was coming. The cabinet officers feel it to be their duty to be here in this crisis to meet any emergency. They are holding no formal meetings, although there are some matters of public business which they daily discuss informally, and the possible contingencies should the president grow worse are also thoroughly canvassed. They do not believe that there is the most remote possibility that Vice President Roosevelt will be called on to exercise the functions of chief magistrate under the disability clause of the constitution while the president lives.

Vice President Roosevelt would not hear of such a course. Still, in the event of grave international complications, an emergency might occur, and the question has arisen in their minds as to who should proclaim the disability provided for by the constitution. That instrument is silent on the subject. There is no precedent to follow. During the protracted illness of President Garfield before his death, Vice President Arthur was not called upon to act.

The messages of sympathy from all over the United States and all over the world, in fact, have fairly overwhelmed Secretary Cortelyou. Two more White House stenographers have been sent for, and upon their arrival perhaps some of the more important messages will be made public. Almost every government in the world has been heard from, most of the heads of European states sending personal messages. Among the latter are President Loubet of France, King Edward VII, Emperor William, the kings of Portugal, Italy and Sweden and the Sultan of Turkey.

Mrs. McKinley Bears Up Bravely.

Mrs. McKinley continues to bear up bravely, and her fortitude under the circumstances is regarded as remarkable. One of her dearest and closest friends, Mrs. Rand of Washington, has arrived here and will probably remain with her during this trying period.

People to Have the Facts.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—A statement intended to put at rest any idea that the official bulletins underestimate the conditions of the president and at the same time give assurance that the public shall have the facts was issued by Secretary Cortelyou. It reads: "The public will be kept fully advised of the actual condition of the president. Each bulletin is carefully and conservatively prepared and is an authoritative statement of the most important features at the hour it is issued. The people are entitled to the facts and shall have them."

An Astrologer's Forecast.

New York, Sept. 9.—Gustave Meyer, who says he is an astrologer, living in Hoboken, N. J., claims to have sent the following telegram to President McKinley when the latter was in San Francisco: "Your wife will live another year—until about next February or March—but be careful of yourself. You will be shot or stabbed during the month of June or else in September."

Court of Inquiry May Be Put Off.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—A rumor is current that in view of the attack upon the president and the presence here of the chief officials of the country, the Schley court of inquiry will be postponed. No official information on the subject is obtainable yet.

Official Bulletin.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—The following bulletin was issued by the president's physicians: "The president is resting comfortably and there is no special change since last bulletin. Pulse 130, temperature 101.6, respiration 30."

The Revolver.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—The revolver with which President McKinley was shot was turned over to Superintendent of Police Bull by Captain Wisser, to whom it had been handed by the soldier who recovered it. It is 32 caliber.

CHICAGO ANARCHISTS.

They Were Assembled Expecting to Hear Important News.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—Chicago anarchists, in response to a call issued three days ago, held a meeting in a saloon on West Chicago avenue and discussed the attempted assassination of President McKinley. Women and men known to be associated with the anarchist movement in the city were in the barroom. The attendance at the meeting showed that it was no impromptu gathering. Over 200 persons were gathered in the hall.

Three days ago the members of several societies were notified that a celebration would take place. The reason for the issuance of the call for the meeting could not be learned. They made no secret of the fact that they anticipated something of which they might talk, however. Not a word of sympathy for the president was heard at the meeting. Instead there were speeches in which the name of McKinley was mentioned only to bring forth cries of condemnation. For the name of the president's assailant there were cheers. All the speeches were in German, although at times some of the members of the audience would give vent to their feelings in English. The meeting lasted until early Saturday morning.

Luke P. Collier, chief of detectives, stated that there had been no noticeable activity among Chicago anarchists up to last Sunday night, when a meeting was held at which Lucy Parsons presided, and where a man named Bernard was a prominent figure. Nothing sensational developed, however, at the meeting, and no action was taken regarding it by the detective department.

Concerning the six anarchists arrested here Captain Collier said: "I found upon examining them that they have been in China, Switzerland, France, England, Germany, Bohemia and Russia. They claim they are more radical than Parsons and Spies were. They believe in no ballot-box, but in government by groups and comrades.

Chief O'Neill of the police department received a telegram from Chief Buell of Buffalo, giving but little foundation for the belief that the plot originated in Chicago. The telegram was as follows: "We have in custody Leon Czolgosz, alias Fred C. Neiman, president's assassin. Locate, if possible, E. J. Esek, who is editor of some socialist paper." Esek is one of the men arrested here.

Justice Prindiville, on application of City Prosecutor Taylor, issued warrants for the six men and three women under arrest, charging them with conspiracy to assassinate President McKinley.

Mr. Justice Prindiville, on application of City Prosecutor Taylor, issued warrants for the six men and three women under arrest, charging them with conspiracy to assassinate President McKinley.

Went Into Temple of Music With Murder In His Heart.

Buffalo, Sept. 9.—Although Czolgosz refused to incriminate any one else in the plot to kill President McKinley, the police are of opinion that another man was a party to it. The man is one who walked directly in front of Czolgosz and shielded him from the sight of the secret service men. The police have a good description of him, and his arrest may occur at any moment. There is no doubt, according to the police, that this man was an accomplice of Czolgosz. Two or three suspects were picked up in various parts of the city, but they were released after undergoing an examination, each one proving an alibi.

District Attorney Pennp gave the substance of Czolgosz's confession as follows:

"This man has admitted shooting the president. He says he intended to kill; that he had been planning to do it for the last three days, since he came here. He went into the Temple of Music with murder in his heart, intending to shoot to kill. He fixed up his hand by tying a handkerchief around it, and waited his turn to get near the president. When he got directly in front of the president he fired. He says he had no confederate, that he was entirely alone in the planning and execution of this diabolical act. He says he is a believer in the theories propounded by Emma Goldman, whom he heard lecture several times. He also intimates that he does not believe in our form of government, and therefore that he deemed it his duty to get rid of the president."

This in substance is the confession of Leon Czolgosz, who is a German-Pole, and says his home is in the vicinity of Cleveland, O. He is 28, unmarried, and has seven brothers and two sisters living there. He exhibits no signs of remorse, and, aside from his nervousness, acts as if he had done a praiseworthy act.

Foraker's Comment.

Cincinnati, Sept. 9.—Joseph B. Foraker returned home from New York and Washington. He first heard the news of the attempted assassination at Charlottesville, Va. In commenting on the awful affair he said: "It would have been bad enough if the assassin had attempted the life of only McKinley, but he was not striking at the man so much as at the president of the United States. McKinley's whole life has been without fault. This ought to have been a safe protection for him while in their midst and would have been if the anarchist were anything but what he is. They are opposed to all law and order and are ready to murder even such a man as McKinley if the notion occurs to them. What the remedy is can not be so easily stated, but 't must be found.'

Assassin's Nationality.

New York, Sept. 9.—An indignation meeting attended by about 500 Poles, of which it is estimated there are 80,000 in New York city, was held at the Church of St. Stanislaus, and bitter denunciation of Czolgosz's crime were uttered, while the expression of sympathy for the president and those belonging to him was warm and universal. Doubt as to the nationality of the assassin was expressed, and it was decided to send a delegate to Cleveland and Toledo at once to look into his ancestry and to prove to the American people that he is not a Pole, but Russian by descent.

Most's Opinion.

New York, Sept. 9.—John Most, the anarchist, was indignant when informed that the man who shot President McKinley was an anarchist. "I do not believe that he is an anarchist," said Most. "Every man who shoots a president or a king is not an anarchist. Guiteau, who shot President Garfield, was not an anarchist. He was a disengaged office-seeker. Anyway, we know nothing of that fellow. Come from Poland, does he? I am sure he is no anarchist. There are no anarchists in Poland. Poland is a Catholic country."

Assassin Was in Chicago.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—If any further proof were needed that Leon Czolgosz was the guest of Chicago anarchists shortly before he went to Buffalo on his murderous mission against President McKinley it was supplied by three of the prisoners in the Central police station. They identified a photograph of the murderous "red" as a picture of the man whom they saw at the home of Abraham Isaak, 515 Carroll avenue, not longer ago than July 12. The 11 men and women who are avowed anarchists were formally booked on the charges of conspiracy to commit murder.

French Sympathy.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Parisian newspapers continue their sympathetic articles, and, as Matin remarks, they are unanimous in denouncing the outrage and commiserating the American nation. "It is to the honor of European journals," says The Matin, "that on such occasion their comments resemble each other closely, and the language of one is the language of all." The Temps, however, in an interesting article referring to President McKinley and Vice President Roosevelt, says: "McKinley is not a Lincoln, and it can confidently be said that Roosevelt under no circumstances would be Johnson, whose presidency became a governmental civil war after the military civil war had come to an end."

Prayers For the President.

New York, Sept. 9.—Not a church service was held in New York city or its environs Sunday at which prayers were not offered for the recovery of President McKinley. And coupled with these supplications was a strong underrcurrent of thanksgiving that the tone of the dispatches from Buffalo were of an encouraging character. There was no doubt, according to the police, that this man was an accomplice of Czolgosz. Two or three suspects were picked up in various parts of the city, but they were released after undergoing an examination, each one proving an alibi.

Judge Johnson, whose presidency became a governmental civil war after the military civil war had come to an end.

To Provide Death Penalty.

Cumberland, Md., Sept. 9.—In discussing the attempted assassination of President McKinley, Congressman George A. Pearre of Maryland said: "I will offer a bill in the next congress of the United States amending the constitution so as to make an unsuccessful attempt upon the life of the president treason and the penalty death. The man who strikes at the president's head is a public enemy, and should be treated as such."

Chicago Churches.

Chicago, Sept. 9.—In every pulpit in Chicago denunciation of anarchism and its followers was the theme of the sermon. The indignation and horror of the people at the attempt on the president's life seemed to have frozen even Christian charity, for the prayers for the speedy recovery of the chief executive were followed by stirring demands in sermons that anarchism be stamped out so effectually that not a vestige be left.

SPLIT UP IN A ROW.

Conservative Wing of the Strikers at Bay View Vote to Return to Work.

RADICALS RUSHED FROM THE HALL.

Action Likely to Result in a Rupture in the Organization of Amalgamated Association—Steel Strike Developments.

Milwaukee, Sept. 9.—The Bay View meeting, after a stormy session, broke up in a row. The radical element left the hall and the remaining members, not quite half of those in attendance, voted to return to work. The question of returning to work was debated at length and every member had his say. President Joseph D. Redfern ordered a secret ballot to be taken. An appeal was made. The appeal was referred to the vice president of the lodge, whose duty it is to act in such an exigency. The lodge waited 15 minutes and the vice president failed to take any action on the appeal. President Redfern then appointed tellers and ordered that a secret ballot be taken, whereupon the radical element left the lodge in a body. The radicals slightly outnumbered the conservatives. Those remaining in lodge then voted unanimously to return to work. The result of the meeting will undoubtedly be a split in the organization of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers in this city. The radicals will undoubtedly claim the charter of the association, but President Redfern says as president of the lodge he will hold on to the charter, as the action taken at the meeting was constitutional.

Fires had been lit at the mills preparatory to starting, whether the lodge voted to return or not. This action of the company, it is said, will be the cause of the question being settled, because the company, it is said, is prepared to start the mills with nonunion men.

It is likely some of the national officers will come to Milwaukee to form a new lodge, and in the future will not recognize the old charter. In this event the men who return to work will continue as a local association and will treat with the company from time to time as such.

Shaffer Forced to Act.

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—If the plans of President Shaffer were for the executive board to go to New York and confer with President Schwab of the United States Steel corporation, these plans were abandoned. The entire membership of the board is in Pittsburg. It was intimated by those in close touch with the board that they had plainly told President Shaffer that a settlement of the strike was imperative and that he had better put himself into communication with President Schwab and have a plain understanding at once. In other words, the executive board of the Amalgamated Association were pushing the leader for a settlement and to end the battle. It was said also in a semi-official way that possibly President Shaffer was communicating with President Schwab personally.

Protocol Is Signed.

Peking, Sept. 9.—The settlement protocol between China and the powers was signed Saturday morning.

The two edicts required under the terms of the protocol were presented immediately after the dispute in regard to the audience at Berlin was arranged. The ministers of the powers at their meeting accepted the edicts as satisfactory, and filed in the dates left blank in the protocol.

Peking will be evacuated Sept. 17, and the province of Pe-Chi-Li Sept. 22.

The ministers decided to allow representation on the Shanghai conservancy board to countries with a tonnage in vessels carrying freight to China of 200,000 or more annually, thus including the United States and France.

Li Hung Chang is again reported to be ill.

It is said that Russia declines to accept Lo Feng Luh as minister to St. Petersburg.

Storm on Lake Huron.

Washington, Sept. 9.—Dispatches received by the life-saving service indicate that a very serious storm raged on Lake Huron. These dispatches report a number of disasters to lake craft and show that, all told, 56 seamen were rescued at different life-saving stations on the lake. The first of the dispatches came from Huron, and says that the schooner Pauly with a crew of 12; the schooner Amaranth, with a crew of seven; the schooner Paige, with a crew of 10, and the schooner Sarnia, with a crew of eight, stranded about three miles south of Port Huron life-saving station, and that all the seamen were rescued by the life-saving service. The dispatch adds that the steamer Quito also stranded, but released herself.

The Portland Oregonian is a Republican paper, but it is in favor of tariff reform. "Tariff reform more than ever is needed now," it says, "when foreign markets are a prime condition of our continued prosperity. Evidence of these things is on every hand. The vast wealth of protected corporations is not only proof of their favored position under the government, but is manufacturing socialist spirit on every hand."

"As an investor in gold bricks Uncle Sam is unrivaled," remarks the Hamilton Democrat. "During the Spanish war he bought the steamship Obdam for $250,000, spent $100,000 more in repairing and fitting her for sea, renamed her McPherson and put her into the transport service. The other day he sold her for $18,700. He paid about $200,000 for another vessel called the Hartford and rechristened her Terry and was glad to get rid of her for $19,600. It is absurd to suppose that ships fit to send to sea filled with American soldiers three years ago are worthless old hulks to-day, good only to be broken up for scrap iron. Either the government was cheated shamefully by their former owners, in collusion with dishonest officials, or it has been robbed by the officials responsible for the condemnation and sale of the transports."

A very strong reaction against the so-called "higher criticism" of the Bible has started among the scholars of Germany and will in time reach this country. The German students of the Bible are the most profound in the world, and they declare that there is absolutely no scholastic basis for very much, at least, of the destructive criticism of the inspired writings.

Astonished the Editor.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. She had no strength or vigor and suffered great distress from her stomach, but she tried Electric Bitters, which helped her at once, and, after using four bottles, she is entirely well,—can eat anything. It's a great tonic, and its gentle laxative qualities are splendid for torpid liver." For indigestion, loss of appetite, stomach and liver troubles it's a positive, guaranteed cure. Only 50c. at J. Jas. Wood & Son's drug store.

THE ELKS FAIR.

Closing Day Attracted Largest Crowd of the Week.

List of the Successful Exhibitors Saturday

Afternoon—Col. Clary Won 2:20 Trot.

The Elks fair closed Saturday with the largest crowd of the week in attendance. The big grand stand and the grounds were thronged, and had the attendance on previous days been anyways near that of Saturday the Elks would have been way ahead financially. The probability is that they about quit even on the week. So far as known there was but one slight disturbance on the grounds, the best of order having been maintained throughout.

Following is a list of the successful exhibitors on Saturday:

Combined horse, mare or gelding, four years and over, $10; Charles Biggers, Washington.

Combined horse, mare or gelding, three years and under, $10; C. R. Turner, Millersburg.

Model mare or gelding (premium by Safety Investment Co.) $10; Baldwin Cartmell, Maysville.

Mare and two colts, $10; Royse Allen, Millersburg.

Suckling colt, any sex, $25; Royse Allen, Millersburg.

Bull, any age or breed, $15; Alex. Duke, Maysville.

Cow, any age or breed, $20; Alex. Duke, Maysville.

Suckling calf, any sex, $20; J. M. Clift, Maysville.

Jersey cow, $10; A. R. Glasecock & Son, Maysville.

Road horse, mare or gelding, $35; John Howard, Georgetown, Ky.

Fancy turnout, single or double (one set harness, by Klipp & Brown, the harness makers, Maysville) $25; Baldwin Cartmell, Maysville.

The 2:20 trot, the closing race, was won by Col. Clary, Proxy second and Ras Allen third. Proxy took the first heat in 2:24, but Col. Clary had little trouble after that in winning the race.

The First Regiment Band of Cincinnati furnished splendid music throughout and one enjoyable feature of the closing hour of the fair was a military drill given by the band in front of the grand stand, a medley of popular airs being rendered during the drill. The applause was frequent and enthusiastic.

The Midway shows on Market street were open until 10 o'clock Saturday night, with all their noise and confusion, but by Sunday morning the fakirs and criers had folded their tents and taken their departure for other scenes.

MRS. POGUE'S FUNERAL.

It Was Heidi Sunday Afternoon—Her Sister, Miss Jones, Will Recover.

The funeral of Mrs. James Pogue, of Mayslick, whose tragic death in a runaway accident Friday afternoon was mentioned Saturday, took place Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock at the family residence, Rev. Augustine J. Smith, of this city, officiating, assisted by Rev. Mr. Lindsey, of Mayslick. Burial in Mayslick Cemetery.

The funeral procession was one of the largest ever seen in that place, a great throng of the friends and neighbors of the family assembling to pay their last tribute to one whom all loved, and whose sad death has cast a gloom over the community.

Mrs. Pogue's sister, Miss Lottie Culver Jones, who was also injured in the runaway, is getting along very well, and will be removed to Mr. Pogue's home today. Her right leg was broken below the knee, a part of the large bone protruding. Dr. Rangohoff, of Cincinnati, assisted by Dr. Davis and Dr. Adamson, removed a portion of the bone and set the fracture. Miss Jones was also bruised about the body, but not seriously.

Kentucky Newspapers.

(Lexington Herald.)

Kentucky has reason to be proud of her newspapers. Her dailies are among the ablest to be found in the entire country, while her country weeklies are upon an unusually high plane of excellence. Nearly all of the latter show evidences of excellent support and many of them are edited in a most creditable manner. They invariably reflect the enterprise and progress of the town in which they are situated and their utterances find their way into the greatest journals of the nation.

The top of Johnson's tunnel, two miles west of Covington, Va., was blown off this week, and Johnson's tunnel now is a thing of the past, much to the delight of C. and O. train men and officials. This was a very dangerous and troublesome tunnel. The sliding slate caused much anxiety and delay in trains. Almost every rain would bring down tons of treacherous slate upon the track. It was decided about two years ago to make a cut out of the tunnel, and this tremendous contract was taken by Messrs. Shanahan, Woolfolk & Co. The work will be completed in about two months.

Editor S. A. Brown, of Bennettsville, S. C., was once immensely surprised. "Through long suffering from dyspepsia," he writes, "my wife was greatly run down. If you want the best and purest, try the Finlay bottle beer. Sold by all saloons in Maysville.

The Finlay Brewing Company's Malt Cream is recommended by all physicians as a tonic and flesh producer. Try a bottle.

Miss Stone, art teacher in the city schools, arrived on the late C. and O. train Saturday night, went to the residence of Dr. Fleming on Front street and left her valise in the hall. The front door was open and when she returned in a few minutes her valise had disappeared. No clue to the thief.

The State Board of Valuation and Assessment has decided that all life insurance companies doing business in this State must pay a franchise tax, the amount to be based on the amount of business done by each company in the State. The insurance companies will meet the matter in the courts. If the courts decide against the companies it means they will have to pay the State about $40,000 a year, and five years' back taxes.

Miss Martina Ragland, of Covington, has recently been chosen as assistant musical instructor of the Villa de Chantel, the leading educational school of Rock Island, Ill., for the third time. The institution is an old and well-known one, formerly situated in Maysville, where it was called St. Francis de Sales Academy. Miss Ragland attended the institution and graduated from it while it was located in Maysville, finishing the last year of the school's location here in 1899. The next year Miss Ragland was honored by being selected as assistant musical instructor of the Villa de Chantel institution. For two years she taught successfully in the Rock Island academy, and again this year an unprecedented and unexpected favor is bestowed in continuing her in her work at the academy. Her many friends in Maysville will be glad to learn of her success.

FLATCAR COLLAPSED.

Five Killed, Six Injured, as the Result of a Collision.

Jamestown, N. D., Sept. 9.—Five men were killed and six others seriously injured, two of whom have since died, in a collision which occurred here. A mixed train on the Northern Pacific came in from Oakes, carrying 17 men on a flatcar. As the train passed the station a road engine was struck and the force of the collision caused the flatcar to collapse. The names of the dead and injured could not be learned. They were harvest hands, who had boarded the car at Lamoure.

Herman Armour.

Saratoga, N. Y., Sept. 9.—Herman O. Armour of New York city died suddenly of apoplexy at his summer cottage here. Mr. Armour had been in comparatively frail health for some time, but was able to ride out once or twice a day and appeared to be gaining strength. Accompanied by his coachman he took his regular drive, and on his return stated he felt much refreshed. Shortly afterward he was seated on the porch of his cottage, conversing with friends. Suddenly he ceased talking and immediately died.

Anarchists Watched.

Paris, Sept. 9.—The Buffalo outrage has stirred the police here into action, particularly in relation to the czar's visit. The ministry of the interior has telegraphed severe instructions to the special commissioners in the provinces to exercise the closest vigilance upon anarchists. Special detectives also have been despatched to the industrial centers to aid the police in watching anarchists and agitators. It is intimated that the czar may cancel his proposed visit to France.

Fierce Forest Fires.

St. Johns, N. F., Sept. 9.—Forest fires are ravaging the country and threaten several large lumbering districts. Twenty-three houses have been destroyed in the settlement of White Bay, and it is feared other villages have also been burned. It is impossible to cope with the fires, and unless a heavy rainfall extinguishes them the loss to the timber interest will be very great.

Bicyclist Nelson's Injuries.

New York, Sept. 9.—The condition of Johnny Nelson, the Chicago bicyclist rider whose left leg was amputated Saturday in consequence of injury received last Wednesday night at the Madison Square Garden, is still serious. Information comes from Bellevue hospital that unless blood poisoning occurs before Tuesday he may survive.

Kruger's Confidence Unshaken.

London, Sept. 9.—A dispatch from Brussels says: "Mr. Kruger understands that a request for a meeting with the czar on French soil would be inopportune. Dr. Leyda denies visiting M. Delcassey. He says that Mr. Kruger is in the best of health and that his confidence is unshaken."

It is announced that Lord Kitchener is going to banish all the Boers captured in arms. Here is where the old rule "first catch your hare" seems to apply.

But there is a vast difference in underwear. All brands are not good brands. We have the exclusive agency here for the best Under Muslins on the market. Maysville women agree with us too, as confirmed by the strongest proof—immense sales. Only three more days for special opportunities.

DEPLORABLE TRAGEDY.

Darius Moran Shot and Killed by Hack Newman Sunday Afternoon at Their Home in Charleston Bottom.

A most deplorable tragedy was enacted about 1 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. Hack Newman three miles west of Maysville, in Charleston Bottom.

Newman lives on the farm best known as the Walter E. Neal farm, but which is now owned by Mr. John Ziegert. Mr. Darius Moran has been making his home in the residence on the farm, occupying a portion of the dwelling while Mr. Newman and family occupied the rest of the house, the two cultivating the land.

During the past week trouble arose between Newman and Moran. The latter was a man of kindly-hearted and peaceable disposition when not under the influence of liquor, but when drinking was quarrelsome.

From Mr. Newman's story the trouble originated over the renting of the land for next season, the owner of the farm having decided not to let Moran remain. The latter seemed to think Newman was to blame somewhat, and the trouble between them grew very bitter. Moran made frequent threats to kill Newman, and the latter last Thursday had a warrant issued for him for threatening his wife also. This only made matters worse, and Newman applied for a warrant to have Moran bound over to keep the peace.

The Magistrates, however, delayed acting on the application until Tuesday when the first case was set for trial. Newman claims he and his wife begged the authorities to protect them from Moran, who promised if the latter continued to molest the family they would send an officer for him, but action was delayed.

Sunday about 1 o'clock Moran returned from Maysville and according to Newman's story began as soon as he got out of the buggy. He started towards the door, threatening Newman and saying he would kill him as soon as he got his gun. As he approached, Newman, who was on the inside with a shotgun, fired, the charge of shot entering Moran's right side, below the nipple. Though fatally wounded, Moran still continued and Newman seized a club and dealt him two blows on the head, the last one felling him to the ground.

Such is Newman's account of the tragedy. He at once came to this city, surrendered to the authorities and was committed to jail. He formerly lived in Maysville and conducted a livery stable on Wall street. He has the reputation of being a quiet and industrious man.

Coroner Wood held an Inquest Sunday afternoon, the jury returning a verdict that Moran came to his death from a gunshot fired by Newman.

After the inquest Moran's remains were removed to the home of his brother, Mr. Elasha Moran, where the funeral takes place at 3 o'clock this afternoon, Elder W. W. Hall or Elder Gibbie officiating. Burial in the Charleston Bottom Cemetery.

Moran was about fifty-five years of age and was the youngest son of the late Mrs. Cornelia Moran. He was married twice, his first wife being Miss Sallie Kerr. A few years after her death he married her sister, Miss Mary Kerr, who survives him. The couple had not been living together for some time, his wife having filed suit for divorce some months ago. He leaves eight children, one by his first and seven by his last marriage,—five sons and three daughters.

Newman's trial is set for 2 p. m. Tuesday before Judge Newell.

Joseph McCann and Eta Light, of Lewis County, were married Saturday by Judge Newell.

DEATH'S HARVEST.

The Wife of Judge Charles Shackleford Died Saturday at Chicago—Duke Bierley Passes Away.

Mrs. Orlena L. Shackleford, wife of Judge Charles Shackleford, of Chicago, died at her home in that city Saturday morning, of pernicious anaemia.

Her remains arrived here this morning and were taken direct to the Maysville Cemetery, where they were laid to rest. The funeral rites of the Episcopal Church were conducted at the grave by Rev. Augustine Smith.

Mrs. Shackleford was a charming, cultured Southern woman, a native of Mississippi. Judge Shackleford, who is an old citizen of Maysville and brother of Dr. James Shackleford, has the sympathy of many friends and acquaintances in his bereavement.

DEATH OF DUKE BIERLEY.

Mr. Duke Bierley, only son of the late Charles Bierley of this city, died Sunday morning at the home of his mother, Mrs. William Newell, of Dayton, O., after a lingering illness. He served through the Spanish-American war, and exposure in the Cuban climate no doubt hastened his death, as he had been declining ever since.

The remains arrived here on the 10 o'clock train this morning, and were taken to the home of Mrs. C. R. Dawson, of the Sixth ward. The funeral arrangements have not been announced.

THE LATE C. B. DUKE.

His Death Was Very Sudden and Was Caused by a Stroke of Apoplexy. Buried at Nashville.

The Nashville American has the following in reference to the death of Mr. Charles B. Duke: "C. B. Duke, father of Buford and Miss Mai Duke, died suddenly at his home in Memphis. Mr. Duke was born in Maysville, Ky., sixty-two years ago, but has resided in Memphis for the past twelve years, being in the employ of the United States Government. The remains will be brought to this city. The funeral will occur from the residence of his son, Buford. Mr. Duke's wife died about two months ago in Memphis after a lingering illness, and her remains were brought here and interred in Mt. Olivet."

Private letters from Memphis indicate that Mr. Duke's death occurred suddenly,—without the slightest premonition, and in the midst of apparently perfect health. The only premonitory symptom was a slight dizziness preceding the fatal apoplectic stroke.

Charles Buford Duke was the second son of Dr. John Marshall Duke, one of the most popular and accomplished physicians of his day in Northern Kentucky. His family connection was a large one and embraced many of the leading families of the State. "Charlie" Duke was a familiar figure to the elder generation of this county. A handsome, graceful young gentleman of fine intelligence, high character, perfect courage and charming manners, he will long be remembered in the home of his youth as a typical representative of the generation which gave to the last century a peculiar distinction and charm.

Holman Cole and Faunie Hiles, of Shannon, were married Saturday.

Anniversary of Galveston Horror.
Galveston, Sept. 9.—The first anniversary of the great storm was appropriately observed in Galveston with public memorial services on the beach at the foot of Broadway. The services were given under the auspices of the Woman's Health Protective association, and were attended by about 7000 people. Rev. Henry Cohen, rabbi of the Jewish congregation, opened the services with prayer. Rev. Arthur James Kirwin of St. Mary's cathedral delivered an address, as did also Colonel R. G. Street, and Rev. W. M. Harris of the Baptist church closed with prayer, after which the planting of cedars and oleanders on the beach followed.

Woman Killed in Runaway.

Pittsburg, Sept. 9.—Miss Jennie R. Ewing, head of the hosiery department of a local store, and prominent in church work, met almost instant death in a runaway accident. Miss Ewing and Miss McIlwaine were guests of Seiwin M. Taylor and wife and went out for a drive. The horses took fright and dashed toward Fifth avenue at breakneck speed. Miss Ewing jumped and alighted on her head, fracturing the skull. Before a physician could reach her she was dead. The horses broke loose from the carriage and the other occupants escaped uninjured.

Filipino Leader Surrenders.

Manilla, Sept. 9.—The insurgent leader Angeles has surrendered in the Camarines, with 19 officers, 42 men, a number of rifles and quantity of ammunition. Numbers of other small surrenders occur daily. The only active forces operating now are those of Malvar and Lukban. The capture or surrender of the former is expected at any time. The latter, the Filipinos believe, will hold out as long as he is able to obtain ammunition. His brother, a doctor in Manilla, says Lukban will never surrender.

The Spooner Dramatic Company will begin a week's engagement at the opera house this (Monday) evening, opening in "The Pearl of Savoy." Popular prices—10, 20 and 30 cents. Ladies admitted Monday night for 15 cents, if ticket is secured before 6 p. m. Monday. Sale of seats now open at Nelson's. Of this company the Danville (Va.) Bee says:

"Mr. Spooner in the leading comedy role, fakir, made a decided hit, and divided honors with Miss Alice Spooner in the leading role. Miss Spooner is pretty, graceful and winsome, and from the start was a favorite with the audience. The specialty work of the company was unusually good. Miss Spooner sang sweetly, and performed the serpentine dance with great skill. Mr. Spooner's comic songs brought down the house. The company is a strong one in every particular, and deserve packed houses."

They Struck it Rich.

It was a grand thing for this community that such an enterprising firm as J. Jas. Wood & Son secured the agency for Dr. King's New Discovery for consumption, the wonderful remedy that has startled the world by its marvelous cures. They give free trial bottles to sufferers, and positively guarantee it to cure coughs, colds, bronchitis, asthma, erup and all throat and lung troubles. A trial proves its merit. Price 50c. and $1.
